Morville Parish Council Audit Report

I have been made aware of the problems which have beset the Council during the year under review my findings should be viewed against that backdrop.

I have found nothing to indicate any impropriety or errors in accounting but there is a lack of supporting invoices etc for some transactions and absence of approval for payments in the minutes.

The shortcomings have now been addressed by the Locum Clerk who has pulled together the accounting records.

- A. No evidence that accounting records were kept during the year until the appointment of the Locum Clerk
- B. A number of payments are not supported by invoices and the Locum Clerk is attempting to get copies in order to reclaim VAT.
- C. No evidence.
- D. No evidence that a budget was prepared. Now taken in hand by the Locum Clerk
- E. No evidence.
